Dear Spyros,

Thank you for your call this evening. I am writing to confirm our discussion wherein I advised that it was my belief that the attorney client relationship had broken down to a point that it was my opinion that NewLead would be best served with other counsel and that we would be withdrawing our appearance. We are willing to assist in the transition of the information/documentation we possess to ease the transition for new counsel. Please advise who you will be appointing in our place.

Please be advised that NewLead's reply to the Defendant's opposition to our motion to vacate is due on June 23 and the hearing is scheduled for June 27 at 10 a.m. In Savannah. We have advised local counsel of our decision and we have copied them on this message so that they can advise you of their intentions also.

Best of luck to you.

Tom
